ALPHA GRANGE, No. 1, MEETS THE 1st and 3d Saturday of each month at 1 o'clock, P. M.
E. C. MCKENNEY, Secretary.

John P. Jones.

The Pacific Coast has certainly not been fortunate in the selection of statesmen. From the times of Phil. Herbert to the present, few men have represented the interests of this western domain in the national councils with honor to themselves or advantage to their constituents. But as there are exceptions to all rules, so there are men even among Pacific Coast statesmen who stand forward as shining examples of intellectual power, private virtue and public rectitude. Of such men were Broderick and Baker, now passed hence, but crowded with the laurel that immortalizes noble actions. Among such men should be placed John P. Jones, the present senatorial representative of Nevada. Jones is no ordinary man. He has not yet been accorded the esteem due his merits. First, because he is a self-made man, and the world is unwilling to honor what it has had no apparent hand in creating. Second, because he rode suddenly from obscurity and flashed like a meteor upon the eyes of men; rose like a star to the zenith, and still remains, so to speak, poised at that meridian. Those who know Jones and who are capable of judging, know him to be a man of marked power. He has built himself, as we said before, and has certainly reared an edifice of lofty proportions. In many respects he is a great man, and were great occasions to require would evince abilities which few imagine him to possess, of which, probably, he himself is scarcely conscious. A man who can rise, as he has risen by his own volition from comparative obscurity to the position of a Senator of the United States, is no ordinary man. We know in south that men of very small caliber have reached the Senate; but we can also shrewdly guess how they got there. Jones reached that position by no covert means; force of energy, personal magnetism, and intellectual abilities lodged him there, and there he is, an honor to the Silver State. He is the man who, single-handed, has had to fight the battles of the Pacific Coast, who has fought them and fought them victoriously. Though he is a millionaire, we can take him by the hand and say, "Well done, good and faithful servant."—Golden Era.

Scene in mechanics: Festive Junior puts his pedal extremities on the seat in front of him. Instructor—"Mr. Z. If it would not be inconvenient you too much, I would like to be able to see the gentleman in the back part of the room."

A Western paper, in describing an accident recently, says, with much candor: "Dr. Jones was called, and under his prompt and skillful treatment the young man died on Wednesday night."

HARD TIMES IN GERMANY.—Those who think the times are hard here in the United States, especially as connected with our leading industries, are invited to a careful study of the recently published statistics of the iron trade of Germany. The capital invested by 32 of the largest iron and steel manufacturing companies in that country amounts to $78,035,000, and the net loss, exclusive of interest and depreciation in the value of property, was $1,795,000. Only six of the companies paid any dividend whatever, and the most fortunate of these six was one of the smallest companies, which divided 6% per cent. The Prussian Mining and Iron Company, of Dusseldorf, with a capital of $2,700,000, actually lost $605,000 on last year's operations and $215,000 on those of the year before. The net loss of the 32 companies in two years has been $2,770,000.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A FIEND'S WORK THWARTED.—The Eureka Sentinel says: Monday night's train was delayed at Horse-shoe Bend by a switch that had been misplaced. The lock had been removed and a spike drove between the rails in such a position that an accident would have resulted if the engineer had not discovered it in time to stop the train. It will be a rough deal on the man tampering with the switches, if he should be unlucky enough to be caught at such nefarious work.

Here is something else that happened "out West." The latest dog story is told of two brutes that species who fell to fighting in a saw-mill out West. In the course of the tussle one of the dogs went plump against a saw in rapid motion, which cut him in two instants. The hind legs ran away, but the fore legs continued to fight, and whipped the other dog. Another proof that the ruling passion is strong in death.

"Say, mister," said a newsboy to a man with a high shirt collar, yesterday, "how do you manage to spit over that collar? Do you use a ladder?"

The pensive mule is not usually susceptible to pathetic emotions. Still he occasionally drops a muleteer.

A Hue and Cry.

The Enterprise of Wednesday was in a most pitiable plight. Its editor had evidently been commanded to say something, and the struggle which he made towards fulfilling his orders were almost superhuman. He propped up an entire brigade of straw men and put them all to rout; he imagined absurd arguments and disproved them, and then having slain all whom he could reach, spurred forward, with lance in rest, to charge a faint speck on the horizon which his distorted vision pronounced a libel.

Now, that the leading paper of this State fails to understand English sometimes, we readily admit and count it merely a misfortune for which "heavy taxpayers" are not to blame. We should not stop to explain matters for the Enterprise, for that paper will probably never know but that it has had an intelligent conception of this State's interests. But we pretend to understand what words mean, and when we undertake to libel any one, shall be prepared to risk the consequences.

Those who please may find that in the files of the Enterprise considerable art has been manifested in the accounts of the birth of this "compromise" (1). The Enterprise of February 9th sub-heads, in a two-column local, "The Amendment Advocated," and gives Mr. Lewis' arguments. Following Judge Lewis came Col. Fair, who expressed his satisfaction.

In the "Leading Paper" of February 16th an editorial headed "The Compromise" says:

The terms of the proposed compromise on the bullion tax did not originate with the Bonanza firm. They were prepared by ex-Chief Justice Lewis, acting as counsel for the county of Storey.

Of course, we concluded from this that these gentlemen acted, in their judgment, for the best interests of their clients, since that is the function of counsel. We were then to conclude further, that this compromise was the best which Lewis & Deal could do for Storey county, and differed from their opinion. We were in the Assembly Chamber when Babcock introduced the $12,000 bill, and heard the matter discussed. When it reached the Senate it was, at first, defeated, because it seemed unnatural that the same lawyers should be paid for fighting the suit and for drafting the compromise, which had then come to Carson. The general impression, as gained from the Enterprise, and prevalent in the Senate, was that Messrs. Lewis & Deal were advocating the compromise. And, had this proven true, it would certainly have been a false position for them to occupy. Whether the Enterprise sought to create this impression for the purpose of making capital for the "compromise," (2) or whether it crept in through stupidity, are questions which we are not prepared to answer.

"Let the Galled Jade Wince."

A disinterested person who has read the Enterprise of Wednesday and Thursday, will naturally conclude that we have touched a tender spot. Every time the editor of the "Leading Paper" reads the Gazette he acts as though he had sat down upon a bodkin, jumping to his feet, tearing his hair, and venting his noble rage in inky curses—but he never offers to take out the bodkin. If what few arguments we have advanced bother you Mr. Editor, answer them, annihilate them, disprove them utterly, but don't swear. We have told you several plain truths, and they have made you very mad, can it be that the Gods purpose to destroy you? We have given to you and the Legislature the legal, just, and popular opinion upon this Bullion Tax, and you have not, as we knew, any ground to stand upon. You have, however, in the course of half a dozen articles by way of answer, called us a liar, coward, pettifogger, slyster, baby, blockhead, idiot—and then assure the public that we have a depraved brain. Still, we forgive you all this, claiming at the same time that you may be wrong, and allowing that mental distress sometimes causes very ungentlemanly language. It should be remembered however, that the "Leading Paper" is after the main question at present, and its abuse will be translated easily by those who have studied the question.

In regard to the tax, we make bold to say that the Enterprise does not represent the people of this State, outside of Storey; that the proposition is a veritable compromise of our interests; that the tax can, and ought to be, collected; that this make shift will afflict the body of the people, and that not one man, in Senate or Assembly, has a right to vote against the commands of his constituents.

If the Enterprise will show why these assertions are untrue, it will do the "compromise" much good. If its editor prefers blackguarding to an exhibit of his other wonderful powers, we shall only hope for the time when he may outgrow his present reverence for coarse epithet.

The Enterprise loves an indigent miner; is in fact a sort of literary minor himself, and in the course of his delving, cross-cutting and drifting for this compromise, has struck a "horse" in the hitherto continuous vein which bothers him. He has tapped the compromise and hoisted a sample of it to the public notice, but he has not shown yet whether it will pay, and the people want to know this before they take stock. This "horse" was entirely unexpected and seems to have got the Enterprise all agog. These things must be encountered, however, in all operations or discussions, and if the Enterprise takes our advice it will cease swearing at the stockholders, levy an intellectual assessment and get a few ideas to work upon.

Explanatory.

We acknowledge the receipt of a letter from Mr. W. E. F. Deal, of Lewis & Deal, Virginia City, asking certain questions which we think it right to answer. Briefly, then, we have always acknowledged these gentlemen as men of honor. We have never assailed them personally, nor made any misstatements in regard to the condition of affairs. Lewis & Deal have served Storey county well, but we hold that Storey's interests have changed and are not now the interests of the State. In discussing the proposition we naturally spoke of Lewis & Deal without a personal motive, and the position given to them is certainly that of Storey county. The Enterprise magnified the intent because it was the cheapest way to get out of it, and Columbus spoke in sepulchral tones of "eternal damnation." Outside of these two there is probably none who read but knew the intent and extent of our article to be entirely without bitterness.

The debater who diverges from argument to angry personalities makes a virtual admission of defeat; and should his abusive personalities have no foundation in fact, he puts himself in a position, if possible, worse—Virginia Chronicle.

Correct, neighbor. Read the Enterprise of Wednesday and Thursday last.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Yesterday the Commission met at 10 A. M. and were engaged during session hours on the Oregon farce. Senator Mathews made a strong speech for the Republican side.

A Washington special of yesterday says: The Pacific Mail steamship subsidy job was slid through the Senate yesterday with an ease that showed that all danger of opposition had been carefully guarded against. The Pacific Mail is believed to be on the verge of bankruptcy, and it is understood that on the continuance of this subsidy depends the solvency of the concern. So that the effort to get the subsidy through Congress was really a fight against death itself. The rival company, the Oriental and Occidental, offered to carry the mails for sea postage only, which will amount to only a few thousand dollars a year. The bill which provides this magnificent gift to a sinking company, under the plea of maintaining American commerce, appropriates only $230,000 for the carriage of the mails between this country and China. Thus it appears that a monthly service to China and Japan costs double as much as an almost daily service to Europe.

Several members of the Electoral Commission are receiving abusive anonymous letters.

Democratic circles are now abusing Tilden and claiming that his nomination was a grave mistake.

The New York Herald indorses Sherman's resumption bill as carefully considered, and a desirable financial measure. It says it offers just the prescription needed at the present state of convalescence. Its precautionary provisions insure the business interests of the country against contraction so sufficiently sudden and violent as not to disturb existing values or interfere with contracts. Its provisions for additional silver coin simply changes the character of the money used, and is not contraction. The Herald believes the bill will receive the approval of the entire business community.

A Washington special, accounting for Tilden's failure, gives, among other reasons, that he was never the real choice of the Democratic party, that his nomination never excited the enthusiasm of the best men of the party, and finally came the Oregon developments, a culminating disgust and annoyance. Men found themselves compelled to believe that, if not Tilden, yet men very near his person had been engaged in a disgusting intrigue. The whole course of the Oregon investigation covers Tilden's reputation with slime, yet he never seemed to see it.

FOREIGN.

Dispatches from Berlin represent that in consequence of reports of the Sultan's illness, anarchy has prevailed in governmental circles at Constantinople.

The war party is in the ascendant at St. Petersburg. The date of Russia's attack will depend mainly on the progress of events in Turkey.

It is believed that England and Austria, while delaying a formal reply to the Russian circular, will again urge the Porte to carry out the recommendations of the Conference.

A letter in the Cologne Gazette from South Russia says the forced loan will probably soon be decreed. Further extension of mobilization has been determined upon, but will scarcely be carried out until milder weather. Commanders of the southern army have been ordered to victual their corps up to the middle of March at least.

A Madrid dispatch announces the publication of a decree permitting the return of Carlist refugees.

At Rome yesterday in consequence of the decision of the Cardinals that the reassembling of the Vatican Council would be opportune, the Pope has distributed to them the questions left unsolved by the previous meeting of the Council, with a view of determining them where he cannot solve them by his own authority.

We learn from the Pittes that their honored chief and adviser, Natchez, is very sick with pneumonia at his ranch on the Big Meadows. As he is a sensible Indian, and has always counseled his tribe to live at peace with the pale faces, whites as well as Indians will regret that he is seriously ill, and hope for his speedy recovery.—Singer State.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

FIREMEN'S BALL.—Every one who attended the Grand Ball of the Reno Fire Department given at the Opera House last night was enthusiastic as to the manner in which this highly enjoyable social event passed off. At about 9 o'clock the dancers began to assemble and shortly after that hour dancing was begun. The tasty manner in which the hall was decorated attracted the attention and admiration of all. Flags, pictures, and fire accoutrements, arranged with an eye to the beautiful, adorned the walls on every hand. Among the pictures several fine portraits of the "Father of this Country" looked benignantly down. For the convenience of the ladies a comfortable dressing room had been improvised near the entrance to the hall. The floor was in good condition, being waxed just enough to enable one to glide over it easily and with all the grace at his command. About twelve sets were dancing when we ventured a count, and though at times somewhat crowded, every one managed to find room to dance. The music was all that could have been wished for, some of the pieces played for the round dances being very fine. About midnight all adjourned to the Branch Saddle Rock, where ample justice was done to one of Pat's substantial suppers, after which more dancing was in order. The party broke up at 5 A. M., all expressing themselves as having had a splendid time, and wishing that Washington or some other equally great and good man had been born oftener. Much credit is due the Fire Department for their efforts for the comfort and pleasure of those who attended. The net receipts will not fall short of $125.

DIED.—Again do we learn that the death angel has entered a peaceful, happy home, and robbed it of its brightest jewel. Mrs. Jesse C. Wright, sister of the wife of our fellow-townsmen, Allen C. Bragg, fell peacefully asleep yesterday afternoon in Carson. Mrs. Wright was only 29 years old. She leaves two little boys, aged respectively five and seven years. The funeral services will take place Sunday afternoon, in Sacramento, Mr. A. C. Bragg and wife go below to-night.

HE WORKED OUT HIS TAX.—Some of our practical jokers had a bite and landed a sardine yesterday. They were talking of working out their road tax, when a newcomer remarked that he was out of a job, and "guessed he'd go out and work his'n," so they picked out a good rocky place for him, and he went to work. They all had engagements down town, and so the stranger was left to work it out.

22ND OF WASHINGTON.—Quite a liberal display of bunting was made yesterday upon the occasion of George's birthday. The banks were closed, and business of all kinds was dull, as every one seemed determined to enjoy the day. Two balls, that of the Firemen in Reno and the Engineer's ball at Wadsworth were the events, and were both well attended.

THIS.—Some Good Samaritan sends us a letter from San Francisco, in which one-half stick describes the weather and one-half column advises Dr. Josselyn. This kind writer also promises to send us some more. No, thank you. We won't trouble you, because you know, we sell advertising.

THOMPSON LIBEL SUIT.—The only subject of interest to us in connection with the libel suit, is the name of the correspondent who has been so eager to abuse Senators Ross and Boardman. The county wants to know his name, for his sneers have done much to prejudice the State's interests in the prison appropriation.

SELECT SCHOOL.—Mrs. L. H. Sheets, late of Mrs. Perry's Seminary, Sacramento, will in a short time open a select school in Reno for children. As soon as the weather becomes settled and a room is procured the school will be opened. Terms will be reasonable.

PROBABILITY.—Our friend Columbus, on the back street, says we are entitled to "eternal damnation." He probably argues that it takes a man to undergo condemnation, while a journalist who pleads the "baby act" should go free.

TO CARSON.—C. S. Varian, M. C. Lake, L. L. Crockett and other Renosites, are in attendance at the law factory to-day. They will get an idea of the machinery, and Parkie will have an item.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT.—Parkinson, of the Tribune, has accused Powning of sending him some fresh trout. Another libel suit may be expected.

Engineers Ball at Wadsworth.

Last evening, about 5:30, train No. 7 glided out of Reno with some fifty couples, en route to the Third Annual Ball of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Everyone felt jolly, for they all anticipated a rare treat. Conductor Heywood sent the train through one and one-half hours ahead of time, and as Messrs. Higgins, Phillips and Lemery had made every preparation for the comfort of those leaving Reno, they could not have other than an enjoyable ride to and from our sister town of Wadsworth. About 9 o'clock the dancers filled into Gladding's Hall, and a few minutes later the grand march, led by Jas. Borland and lady, commenced.

Messrs. Church & Jones, by their charming music, sept a thrill of pleasure through every soul, and as some seventy couples marched down the hall, under the intelligent direction of the polite Floor Director, J. T. Hutchinson, each one seemed to feel that old Terpsichore himself had been resurrected, rejuvenated, and was then presiding as by special favor, over the festivities of the occasion.

About 12:30 the first part of the programme was completed. The next in order was supper. The inner man called for refreshments and refused to be comforted with anything short of a visit to the Depot Hotel and an inspection of D. Allen's dining room. We all expected something good but were scarcely prepared for such an elegant collation as we found awaiting us. The fact is that Mr. Allen and the engineers had put up a job on the dancers. Well, we took all that job in. Returning to the hall the dancing began in earnest and more enjoyment was crowded into a few hours than can possibly be described. The ball was a complete success and one of the most enjoyable parties that we have ever attended.

We had material for a long Jenkins report but did not produce the copy in time for insertion. Again we are also aware of our inability to properly describe the fine ball costumes worn by the ladies, and it may be better that we have omitted this very interesting feature in our description of the evening's entertainment. A few minutes before five o'clock dancing ceased, and another first class party was brought to a close.

WADSWORTH.—There are worse towns in the State than Wadsworth and filled with worse people. We happened in upon the natives of that burg last evening and found them in statu quo ante bellum. "Ferg," Jack Page, Gladding, Bevier, Thomas and a thousand more of the old stand-bys were there in the best of spirits and ready to catch a pedro if it belonged to a stranger. Business is dull now in Wadsworth as well as New York, and the only calling which obtains many followers is the process of waiting for Spring. Everybody is busy at that, and the railroad boys are the only ones who seem to keep track of the time. Ed. Fowler seems to be as full of business as ever and says he is happy on the Presidential question by a vote of 8 to 7. There is considerable talk about the memorial in regard to the reservation. Many express the opinion that it will never affect Congress in the least, and that if it should, rank injustice to the Indian will ensue. Gladding's Hall is the pride of Wadsworth, and a better one than Reno possesses. One thing which we think it well to speak about is the fact that, barring what we took with us, we did not see but one pretty girl in the burg, and she was from Truckee. We want that corrected before our next visit.

Read! Read!! Read!!!

Come, you citizens and strangers. Miners, sailors, merchants, grangers: Listen to the truthful story Of E. Meyer of Reno. He in truthful words will tell you Just the goods he has to sell you; Mind you now he isn't joking. If you are fond of chewing or smoking, Or if you are given to snuffing— What he keeps does not need puffing. He has brands will suit you really. Tobacco users prize them dearly. From all parts of the dominion He has stock; and his opinion Is, that none can suit you better. His cigars just from Havana, Smoking in the most lovely manner; Stereochrom pipes of styles and fashion Just to suit each state and passion. And it is in Nevada stated, That his BIT CIGARS are always tasted. Lone Jack, Durham, Honey Suckle, Turkish long cut, Billy Button. All the fine cut brands for chewing That your teeth will never ruin. Pipes to suit the inveterate smoker. Cards for playing stinch or poker. Pipes of briar, stems of cherry. That of any man can carry. It would take a week to tell you All the things he has to sell you. While in town you may be sleeping, At the new Cigar Store drop in. Where surely you'll be apt to find Anything in smoking line. He will see you well provided With what is by all decided The smokers' and the chewer's blow. The best and cheapest in Reno.

Jottings.

Anselmo Torelli & Co have added a finely finished front to their place of business on Virginia street.

Who owns this State, Billy Woods or Flood & O'Brien?

"48" was present at the Firemen's Ball last night.

The people exacted pledges of their representatives. The Enterprise moves to strike out. Which shall it be?

At 12 o'clock last night the gentle rain began to fall, but it did not continue long enough to do any good.

Next Monday evening we have another gift entertainment at the Reno Opera House. Wyman, the magician, is the attraction.

E. Meyer chops into poetry in another column. Read him.

The weather is now immense.

Lots of sleepy looking people in town to-day.

A d. b. was "fired out" of a saloon yesterday afternoon, to the delight of the bystanders.

The Enterprise says it hopes the Compromise will pass. So does Mackay & Fair.

The banner across Virginia street, near the corner, is just as good a thing as a Washoe zephyr wants to get hold of.

Improvements still continue over at the Court House. To-day a hitching rail was put up, which will greatly add to the convenience of horsemen.

A meeting of the stockholders in the North Truckee Ditch Company is called for Saturday, March 3d, 1877. The yearly election of Trustees will come before the meeting. See official notice.

We heard yesterday of two gentlemen between whom there is a slight variance at law, playing pedro together. The plaintiff won.

T. K. H. was unloading powder the other morning, and will handle another car load soon. This is good news to all, for powder sometimes explodes.

The "Leading Paper" says that we have misrepresented it. We must have given it credit for ordinary sense.

Ladies, read Mrs. J. Prescott's local ad. to be found elsewhere in to-day's issue.

Trout are now being taken from the Truckee river in quite large quantities, and soon the banks of the river will be lined with anglers. The Indians are in their glory now, and we saw one yesterday with all the fish he could carry.

Our lamp dealers are doing a light business.

A small drove of good looking beef cattle were brought into town to-day.

The parties who decorated the Opera House for the Firemen's Ball, are deserving of praise for the tasteful manner in which it was done.

Lamb is now happy, as he has a few more boarders and gathers around the festive board the number of seven hungry, happy souls.

The Enterprise's editorials to-day all bear upon kindred themes: "The Compromise," "For Charity's Sake," "The Golden Gate."

GOING.—Messrs. Church and Jones, the well known musicians, will soon return to their old stamping ground about Sacramento. They say that with the Legislature business will die in Carson, and that the season's dancing is about finished in Virginia. They will return west about March 1st. Wish they'd leave Ben Bolt and the Clarionette.

A WISE DOG.—We have often wondered what a certain livery man kept that yellow dog for, and yesterday we learned. When a game of Pedro is in progress and Hymers can't save his five spot, he hands it over to Dick and he eats it. An easy way of sticking an opponent and feeding a dog.

ITEMS.—W. S. Edwards, of the Truckee Republican, was at Wadsworth last evening at the Engineer's Ball. He throws his hoofs in a very lively manner, and declares his sympathy for the boys who "don't go home till morning."

Ladies wishing to have their old Summer Hats remodeled will please send them to my place of business as soon as possible. Respectfully

MRS. J. PRESCOTT.

DR. G. R. HUTCHINSON extracts teeth for One Dollar, and fills teeth for One Dollar and upwards. Artificial teeth from $5 to $30.

WANTED.—A small house, furnished or unfurnished, near the Reno Gas Works. Leave address at this office. 1-41f

SILVER-PLATED WARE.—S. N. Davidson announces that he will sell during the Holidays quadruple silver-plated Napkin Rings, of Rogers' make, with initials engraved thereon, for 25 cents, largest size, 50 cents. Silver thimbles with initials engraved, 25 cents, and all other goods in proportion.

WANTED.—Six or eight gentlemen to board in a private family. Meals regular, supply abundant, terms, $5 per week. For particulars apply at the Gazette office.

A large assortment of Ladies' fine Slippers and children's fine Shoes at John Sunderland's.

C. J. Brookins & Co. have just received from the East a variety of beautiful and useful articles, which they propose to sell at the very lowest rates. Pencils, knife, rubber, pen and penholder, all combined, and all for 25 cents. Perfumed shells, camphor stone, Grecian jewelry, Palestine crosses, magic fingers, bird whistles, writing boxes, etc. In addition to these rare novelties he has a fine collection of albums, fruits, candies, nuttoys, cigars and tobacco, cigar holders, cutlery, fishing tackle, pop-corn, stationery, and a collection of the latest and most popular sheet music. 2-17f DISTURBED SLUMBERS.—It was a still, frosty night; the old lady was in bed half asleep, and half awake; and the lovers were parting on the door step. He kissed her, and it sounded on the still air like the crack of a bull driver's whip, or a shot from a pocket pistol. "There goes my yeast bottle," says the old lady to herself, "burst into twenty hundred pieces, and my bread is all dough again." She turned over uneasily as another fusillade of busses greeted her ear, and muttered, "I do wish them pesky Chinamen would ever get through celebrating New Year; 'pears as if a body never could get any sleep." The lovers too themselves asunder, and the old lady's sleep was disturbed no more.—Eureka Sentinel.

In 1813 there was built at Waltham, Massachusetts, a mill, believed to have been the first in the world, which combined all the requirements for making finished cloth out of raw cotton.

"Whichever way I turn," said an unfortunate hand-organ man, "I find nothing but grinding poverty." Yet he always carries a barrel of notes. And he always feels cranky.

In order to become a successful exhibitor at a poultry show, there is no denying that a man requires considerable Cochon.

The blue-glass business is nothing new after all. We suppose the glass blowers blew glass long before Gen. Pleasanton was born.

THE NEVADA STATE AGRICULTUral, Mining and Mechanical Society have a farm, grounds and buildings under fence, of about eighty-eight (88) acres, as follows: Seventy (70) in clover, eight (8) acres in speed ring, and about ten (10) acres in buildings and unutilized land; one thousand (1,000) shade trees; also one span of horses, one wagon, plows and harrows.

They desire to LEASE the farm premises for one year, with the privilege of two, the Society reserving Entrance Money to Grounds and Grand Stand, and Pool Privilege, during the annual meeting of the Society.
First—The lessee will be required to keep the speed ring in good order; put it in prime order for the annual meeting of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees.
Second—To keep the fence and buildings in complete order and repair, damage from the elements and public enemies excepted.
Third—To pursue the farming in the most approved style.

Fourth—To protect the clover meadows and shade and ornamental trees from drought or damage from any source whatever, damage from pestilential insect and all was excepted.
Fifth—The lessee will be required to give a good and sufficient bond to keep, in good faith, all of the covenants made with the Society.
Sixth—The lessee will be required to make Quarterly Payments in advance.
Seventh—Bids will be received until 3 o'clock
P. M., Saturday, March 3d, 1877.

The Trustees reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
